

Speaker & Theme

Kent Carlson founded Oak Hills Church in Folsom, CA in 1984. He is currently Pastor Emeritus of Oak Hills as he works on developing leadership in congregations nationwide. He is the co-author of the book Renovation of the Church: What Happens When a Seeker Church Discovers Spiritual Formation. Kent is a native of Chicago and a rabid Cubs fan. He and his wife Diane have been married since 1982 and have three daughters and two granddaughters.

Kent's topic for the weekend is God Calls Us To Freedom. He explains, "The pain of life has taught us some hard lessons, and many of us respond by hiding who we truly are from others, from God, and even from ourselves." Join us this weekend as we seek to discover more about who God created us to be and as we live into the freedom of being beloved sons of God.

What's a Men & Boys Retreat?

Monks in sackcloth praying and fasting all weekend? Not exactly. Our setting will be the stunning redwood mountains of the Sonoma coast.

Fantastic food, and plenty of it. Old friendships and new. Time to rest—naps are encouraged! Basketball, volleyball, swimming and a ropes course. Hiking in the redwoods and along the coast. Late night campfire and board games (our Settlers of Catan tournament is legendary). Odbal (we'll teach you). Opportunities for worship and fellowship. The ever popular Man Olympics where everybody is a qualifier. And much more. You won't believe we fit it all into one weekend!
